with God

Part 3

Mountain Top Meetings

A person is seen from behind, with their arms raised in a gesture of praise or worship. They are wearing a ring on their left hand and a bracelet on their right wrist. The background is a blurred church interior with a large, bright, glowing cross on the wall. Other people in the background also have their arms raised. The overall atmosphere is one of spiritual celebration.

Mountain Top Meetings

The background of the image shows a large crowd of people in a church or worship space. Many of their hands are raised in the air, reaching towards the top of the frame. In the center background, a large, dark wooden cross is visible. Several bright spotlights are shining down from above, creating a hazy, golden atmosphere. The overall color palette is warm, with shades of orange, yellow, and brown.

A person is sitting on a light-colored, textured couch, reading an open Bible. They are wearing a grey button-down shirt over a brown t-shirt and dark pants. Their hands are visible, holding the pages of the Bible. The background is a solid teal color.

WHY SHOULD I SPEND TIME ALONE WITH GOD?

The Presence of God

It's crucial for us to cultivate an awareness of God's presence in our lives. Whether we are enjoying a beautiful sunrise or facing tough challenges, He is close by, waiting to meet us within those experiences.

When we think about meeting God, it often starts with a calling. God invites each of us into a relationship, and it's up to us to respond. Feeling that tug on our heartstrings means He is ready for us to draw nearer. Through His love and grace, we're assured of His welcoming spirit, pushing us to spend more time in His presence, letting us know that we are desired and cherished.

The Presence of God

Feeling God's presence is a vital aspect of our spiritual journey. This presence isn't just about searching for Him in grand places; He meets us in the ordinary and the daily. When we consciously invite Him into every moment, we begin to recognize that He is with us.

A full-page background image depicting Moses, an elderly man with a long white beard and hair, wearing a white robe and a brown cloak. He stands on a rocky, grassy cliffside, looking out over a vast, colorful valley and distant mountains under a bright blue sky with large white clouds. The scene is bathed in warm, golden light, suggesting sunrise or sunset. The text 'Moses and Mount Nebo' is overlaid in a large, bold, black serif font on the right side of the image.

Moses and Mount Nebo

Deuteronomy 32:44-52 NIV

44 Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people. 45 When Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel, 46 he said to them, “Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day, so that you may command your children to obey carefully all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 32:44-52 NIV

47 They are not just idle words for you—they are your life. By them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 32:44-52 NIV

Moses to Die on Mount Nebo

48 On that same day the Lord told Moses, 49
“Go up into the Abarim Range to Mount Nebo
in Moab, across from Jericho, and view Canaan, the land I am giving the Israelites as their own possession. 50 There on the mountain that you have climbed you will die and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.

Deuteronomy 32:44-52 NIV

51 This is because both of you broke faith with me in the presence of the Israelites at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Desert of Zin and because you did not uphold my holiness among the Israelites. 52

Therefore, you will see the land only from a distance; you will not enter the land I am giving to the people of Israel.”

Faith Is the Point!

Hebrews 11:13-16 NIV

13 All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance, admitting that they were foreigners and strangers on earth. 14 People who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own.

Hebrews 11:13-16 NIV

15 If they had been thinking of the country they had left, they would have had opportunity to return. 16 Instead, they were longing for a better country—a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

Hebrews 11:23-28 NIV

23 By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

24 By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. 25 He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

Hebrews 11:23-28 NIV

26 He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. 27

By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible. 28 By faith he kept the Passover and the application of blood, so that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn of Israel.

At its heart, faith means trusting God about what cannot yet be seen. Faith is spiritual perception—an insight into the unseen—to sense God at work despite obstacles and to obey his word courageously.³

The heroes of faith demonstrated a resolute determination to live faithfully even though "none of them received what had been promised" (v. 39b).⁴

The fulfillment of God's promises to them has now come in Jesus Christ, and their redemption too is now complete in him.⁵

Your Faith

should not be in the wisdom of men,

but in the power of God.
